MR. AND MRS. BENJAMIN K. PITMAN "AT HOME"

A genuine greeting of aloha was extended to about 300 guests by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin K. Pitman of Boston on Wednesday afternoon when they were "at home" to every Hawaiian who wished to come and say aloha to this son of Hawaii and his charming wife. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman were assisted in the reception of their guests by Mrs. Mary Beckley, Miss Lucy Peabody, Mrs. W. K. Hutchinson, Mrs. Irene Holloway, Mrs. Edgar Henriques, Mrs. Victor Houston, Mrs. Henry Beckley, Miss Irene Dickson, Miss Beckley, Mrs. Mary Montano, Mrs. Emma Nakulana and Mrs. Albert P. Taylor.

Mr. E. K. Lilikalan presented the guests to Mr. and Mrs. Pitman. A very pleasing event of the afternoon was when little Keali'i Kaula Pakoma (meaning "Chief that fought the Potomac") presented Mr. and Mrs. Pitman with a small boy. This small boy is the grandson of one Mr. Pitman's nephews.

Mr. Pitman's brother, Henry, was in the Civil War and in Libby Prison and was an exchange prisoner. He, however, died shortly after his release and this descendant was named in his honor.

"Dude" Miller furnished old-time music during the afternoon. Refreshments were served.

MAJOR HERBERT O. WILLIAMS GIVES A DINNER

At the University Club this evening Maj. Herbert O. Williams is entertaining with a dinner-dance. The table is to be decorated with American Beauty roses and trailers of asparagus vine. Tulle in the shade of the flowers will further ornament the table.
